

Dear Friends,

This week we witnessed a truly historic election. We can never take for granted that here in America – we experience the peaceful transition from one leader to another.

Now that the people of Florida and our nation have spoken, it is time for our nation to unite and rally behind our leaders – and our new President-elect Obama – with one purpose – to strengthen our economy and increase opportunity for our people. It is time to focus on getting things done – just as we have done in Tallahassee.

I have been very privileged to work together alongside Republicans and Democrats. Together, we have accomplished much for the people of Florida. It is amazing what we can achieve when we keep our focus on the people who really matter – the people we serve – our boss.

This week I visited a small business here in Florida that is struggling because of the shape our economy is in. I want to continue working with both parties to bring that business and the many others like it relief and prosperity. We are moving forward in a bipartisan manner – not for the next election – but for the next generation.

God bless you and God bless Florida.
